

Cindy Carlyon was born and raised on the same Kansas farm where she now lives. Her mother started teaching her piano when she was age 4. She did a stint with accordion and violin, as well as studying pipe organ during high school.

After a quarter century away, she moved back to her native Kansas roots and back into music with a vengeance! She was in HR/Accounting for a local manufacturer for 25 years and is now at K-State enjoying just the accounting side of life. Currently, she serves as organist at First United Methodist Church and St Paul's Lutheran Church in Junction City. She is a member of Sweet Adelines and has performed in international competition. She also lends her voice to two other choruses.

Seven years ago, three ladies sang together at a jam, just for fun - who knew that it would very soon evolve into The Church Ladies!
